

MEDICAL MISSIONS - SAINT FRANCIS' GLOBAL OUTREACH

IMM MARKS FIFTH ANNIVERSARY

Saint Francis' International Medical Missions program recently observed its fifth anniversary, honoring the founding volunteers who helped to establish the effort that has brought modern healthcare to developing nations. IMM has now completed 18 missions to three countries. Over 500 volunteers, led by Ibrahim Daoud, M.D., and Michael R. Bourque, M.D., have treated more than 3,500 patients in the last five years.

DR. DAOUD'S TEAM – Ibrahim Daoud, M.D., Director, Minimally Invasive Surgery, saluted veteran members of his team. L-R: Pete Williams, C.R.N.A.; Dr. Daoud; Laurie Dauphine, C.R.N.A.; and Johammie Ramirez, C.S.T.

HONORED FOR COMPASSION – Michael R. Bourque, M.D., has been cited by the Schwartz Center for Compassionate Healthcare for his work with Saint Francis International Medical Missions. Dr. Bourque received an Honorable Mention in the Schwartz Center Compassionate Caregiver Awards. The Boston-based Schwartz Center honors professional caregivers from across New England who display extraordinary compassion in caring for patients. Dr. Bourque will be leading his next mission to the Dominican Republic in November.
